

Wolfstreet is looking for a production intern

Production Internship - Learn to produce for international brands at Wolfstreet

From January/february 2026 till August 2026 - fulltime

We are looking for a production intern who's eager to learn and up for a challenge. You are willing to work on a wide variety of tasks to push productions forward. Together with our producers and production managers, you are responsible for making sure everything runs smoothly during pre-production, shoots, and post-production. Assignments will vary from working on pitch decks to scouting locations and assisting on set shooting the newest TV commercials. You are a team player and can add to the vibe of the office. You will work in our beautiful office in the Amsterdam city center or on set, somewhere in The Netherlands, or potentially abroad.
