

Communications & Marketing Intern

Amsterdam

KeyWI was founded in January 2021. We are a Software as a Service company with a solution for online marketers. For SEO purposes we automate an analysis and give insights based on data. We at KeyWI are looking for young minds to boost our team and start pushing our boundaries even further.

We're looking for an intern who is on top of their game when it comes to communication and writing interesting & spot-on content. Someone who is constantly on the lookout for the newest gadgets and technology and preferably has affinity with data. We're looking for someone who is capable of working individually and is curious for new creative ideas. You will be coached by the founders personally whilst having enough freedom to pursue your own ideas. Your content will be displayed on our social media, website and emails. 🔥🔥🔥

What you will be doing:

- Work in a smart, young and motivated team
- Take ownership of ideas from concept to development
- Challenge yourself in a rapidly evolving company
- Working on our Social Media strategy with one of our Founders
- Posting and maintaining these channels
- Create digital content: Illustrations & written content

What you need:

- On-the-go learning mentality: curious intellect
- Affinity with Online marketing, Data, SEO is a plus
- Fluency in Dutch & English is required
- Being a boss at grammar and punctuation is required
- At least 3 months for a regular internship

In return?

We will provide you an environment where you can quickly develop new skills and where you will get the space to try out your own solutions. You will be mentored by one of us personally and we'll give you a peek behind the scenes of starting a company from scratch. You can work at our location, which is based 50 meters from the Koningsplein in Amsterdam or work remotely. Besides all this, you will receive 400 euros per month for a full-time internship.
